

Graduate Diploma in Applied Arts

Undertake specialised study and practice in Visual Arts to extend your prior degree work, or explore a new direction of activity or different media. Develop a body of work as a major project.

Programme outline

The Graduate Diploma in Applied Arts is worth 120 credits and is usually undertaken full-time over one year.

The content may be either a major Body of Work, worth 60 credits, plus three 20-credit papers chosen from Research and Presentation, Creative Enterprise, Special Topic (two available); or other degree papers with the approval of the Head of School.

Each major has well-equipped specialist rooms and facilities. Our teaching staff are well qualified and committed to encouraging quality student learning.

For students who have either:

- completed a degree in a related area of study and wish to extend their work into new areas or genres
- substantial relevant creative experience in lieu of a degree
- a place in an approved international exchange programme (their results would be cross-credited back to their main qualification in their homeland)

Entry criteria

Arts related degree or equivalent experience and evidence of ability to study at Level 7.

International students
